TOGETHER, BUILDING MEN

NCMM AND YOUR CHURCH

The National Coalition of Ministries to Men is a coalition of like-minded leaders of ministry and for-profit organizations banding together for one purpose: to build men up in the Lord. Our passion is to partner with your church or churches to encourage every willing man to pursue God and be equipped for spiritual service in the home, workplace, community, and world.

Together we can engage your men in SPIRITUAL MATURITY AND EFFECTIVE MINISTRY

- Gain access to a wide bandwidth of proven strategies and resources for discipling and mentoring the men of your church
- Equip your staff and lay leaders with field-proven training and coaching that you can trust
- Receive encouragement, insight, and counsel from other like-minded ministry practitioners across the country
- Connect with and influence other ministry leaders through the national leadership conference and working groups
- Participate with other national leaders to raise the public awareness of the spiritual needs and potential of American men.

We Are NCMM

- Founded in 1996, NCMM is an unprecedented collaboration of diverse organizations uniquely positioned to help equip the local church for ministry—pooling resources and encouragement for the current national awakening of ministry to men
- Comprised of nearly one hundred ministry and for-profit organizations, including denominations representing more than 200,000 local churches
